COLLEGE

DEDICATION

TO the two mates who led our pirate crew through a rough sea to a thrilling victory in battle and brought back trophies and booty for all, in admiration and appreciation for their clean fight, we dedicate this pirate log of the 1932 Alcalde.

DEDICATEES

COACH GEORGE A. FOLTZ

COACH RUFUS KING

WARNING

FOLLOWS the log of our pirate crew from September, 1931, to May, 1932. With a daring captain and mates we sailed the seven seas of education in search of the treasures of Life.

This log records our successes, reverses, and casualties.

Public Schools*

The Superintendent's Message

THE TYLER HIGH SCHOOL has made rapid progress during the past five years. At present this high school is numbered among the largest in Texas. Practically every section of the United States is represented by new students this year, who, as a whole, are boys and girls that any school would be glad to accept.

With the rapid growth of the school have come a more efficient organization, a broader curriculum, and a more wholesome activity program.

What shall be the future of the Tyler High School? An enlargement of the physical plant and a further extension of the curriculum will do much to meet the needs of the boys and girls in this rapidly growing city. More important than all of these is the consciousness on the part of the students that they alone will make the type of school that Tyler will have tomorrow.

J. M. HODGES, Superintendent.

The Principal's Message

THE HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL serves as an extra curricular activity through which many students get practical business experience. As years pass, the ALCALDE becomes an invaluable reference in recalling the happenings of high school days. It also aids in preserving the customs and traditions established by teachers and students, which have become a great balancing factor in Tyler High School for the many new additions to our group.

The sponsors and staff are to be congratulated for their efforts in making this book.

S. B. BURK, Principal.

Johnnie kicks off to other triumphs for the Lions, as the band, assisted by new blue and white uniforms, inspires the good old Tyler spirit. While coach and boys (plus Clifford) plan further conquests, we'll introduce you to Frances Stovall, Sponsor; Louis Durst, Drum Major; and Jimmie, Jeanette and Ed, Yell Leaders; all of whom had their part in bringing the twelfth man into the limelight. Popcorn, peanuts, and pep—pandemonium reigns as the gang starts for Athens and Corsicana.

Two T. H. S. "stand-bys" quickly resume their duties—the busses bearing valuable cargo, and the popular promenade protecting promenaders from exposure. The redheads offer the proof that all that glitters is not gold, and three modernettes insist that a worthwhile motto is: "See, hear, and speak no evil." The gentlemen are entranced with the choice group of newcomers who give us a smile. The editorial staff assume a modest (?) expression as they study the new Lion-Apache Pow Wow.

Kiddies, have you your complete stamp collection yet? Hurry to get these new ones. Our friend Sappo's test tube appears harmless enough, but observe the daredevil look in his eye! Just for you Pop-Eye shows his "mussel" and hangs his pipe at a rakish angle. Tillie the Toiler, neither toiling nor spinning, charms with a "looking-at-you" smile. The angelic attitude adopted by the Katzenjammer Kids is really permanent, guaranteed to wear. Dora Bell applies the puff in her knowing way (and she ain't so dumb!). Finally, you can't resist this look-in on the private lives of Bryan and Johnson, gentlemen with a past and pride of the old T. H. S. album!

Thanks for the theme picture offered for our page in honor of leap year. In triple fashion the ladies salute as three who practice "Look before you leap," while the gentlemen interpret thusly: "Just look us over before you leap." On exhibit, too, are some chronic cases of leap year hits (some extending over from previous years, of course).

Maybe it's the atmosphere, maybe it's astigmatism; sometimes we study so hard, we think we're seeing double, and again there really is a couple of other fellows. The twins and near twins convince us charm goes in pairs. Fat and Rose set us straight about the long and short of the matter. Centennial year presents the Spirit of '76. Two things puzzle: why are the double-pairs so amused, and how can Frank and Ben, big campus he-men, look so intelligent?

Powdered curls and ruffled neckties, polka dots, and suspenders—it's all one and the same when good fellows get together. In another mob scene, we see all flavors of "Sunday-go-to-meetin'" smiles displayed. A study in contrasts: three dazzling maidens against a hillside, and three musketeers completely enveloped in "what-a-men" expressions. We are responsible for no scalps when this group on the steps really gets the war-paint on. Better hold to yours.

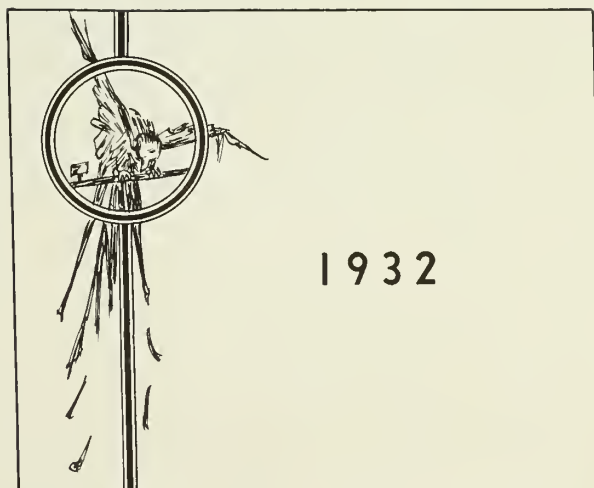

In the spring, fancies differ—this trio to the shade of the good ole campus tree (woodman, spare it), and the racketeers to tennis. The girl graduates who started out to find fun and fellowship certainly radiate good cheer in these samples. We have a reserved space for the possessors of the key to our—(fooled you) lockers, and the Alcalde office! We offer no footnotes on this treat for the eyes; it is of a sufficiency. Louise looks at us so pensively that we all wonder what vacation time will bring.

THE CREW

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

LELAND WILCOX

President, Mid-term Graduating Class.
Dramatic Club, Football.

How can he be so shy with such a twinkle in his eye?

JOHN WILCOX

For she's a jolly good fellow.

A SENIOR MUSES

*Dear Seniors, as we graduate,
Happiness and hope are ours indeed;
Sorrow and despair in ambush wait,
But fame is ours as we succeed.
Yet, why should we muse on fate,
Destroying our dream paradise?
Sadness never comes too late;
Happiness too swiftly flies.*

ODE TO SUCCESS

I must not linger here;
I must be on my way;
Far out in the future somewhere
There will come a trying day.

So I must not linger here
In doubt or secret fears;
I'll put my hopes in valiant thoughts
And live for future years.

No storm, I know, can change my ode;
I'll live forever blest,
For even the weariest road
Leads somewhere to success.

To success there is no easy way,
But surely no fate I'll find;
There'll be success in whate'er I do
If I keep my ode in mind.

—LA RUE SLATON.

PLANK WALKING

"BUNK"

COACH FOLTZ

Another successful year was added to Mr. Foltz's credit. Although injuries occurred to several of his outstanding linesmen, he "whipped out" one of the strongest lines in the state. His fundamental principle of the game was to play clean and hard. Mr. Foltz will become Director of Athletics next year.

COACH KING

Mr. King taught the backfield the consistent style of play that prevailed throughout the year. His own scientific play of the game was passed on to the backfield men. Mr. King will become Head Coach next year.

JOHN WILCOX

Captain

Guard—Third Year

John's football attitude made itself felt in the backfield as well as in the line. Shifted to half early in the season, he excelled in line plunging; his defensive work had its same outstanding quality. The team greatly missed his leadership and skill in the last games after he was injured.

REAGAN GREGORY

Captain-Elect

End—Second Year

Reagan, as a generator of pep and fight, upheld the family tradition this year by playing great football. He was an all-around end, flashy in blocking secondary defense. The Lions showed their belief in him by selecting him to lead the team next year.

JEFF BRACKEN

Halfback—First Year

Jeff, playing his first and last year of football with the Lions, proved one of the best passers on the team. His determination carried him a long way when he lugged the ball. Although light, he hit the line hard.

J. T. BRUMLEY

End—Third Year

Jiggs' ability to snag passes made many a first down for the Lions. His lanky build made it possible for him to display these feats of pass-snagging, and breaking up of plays toward his side of the line. He will be greatly missed next year.

O. N. COLE

Center—First Year

O. N. lettered his first year as a reserve center. He was good at breaking up passes and stopping line thrusts, and he was accurate in passing. Cole's steadiness "under fire" proved that he is capable of taking over the regular center position next year.

NEWELL CRAWFORD

End—First Year

Crawford is another first year man who played first-class football. Although hampered by a bad "charley-horse" at the last of the season, he was in every play, fighting and opposing backfield men every minute he was in the game.

Hicks takes the ball off tackle.

THOMAS GLASS

Tackle—Second Year

Thomas is a tackle who deals an offensive end misery. He uses his hands, feet, speed, and his head splendidly. Glass played the outstanding game of his football career at Corsicana, where he was everywhere stopping off-tackle plays, end-runs, and line plunges.

MACK HARDWICK

Guard—Second Year

Mack was handicapped by a bad knee during the year. While he was playing, he was in there fighting and scrapping until the last minute. His determination to stop the opponents' offense was consistent and successful.

G. B. HICKS

Halfback—First Year

G. B. was the fastest man on the Lions' roster this year. His speed and shiftiness assisted him many times in getting into an open field and making long gallops. Hicks was too light to block; therefore, he spent his spare time in lugging the ball to "pay dirt."

ALBERT HILL

Fullback—Third Year

"Mule" is a line-plunger deluxe. His heavy build assisted him many times in cracking a good line. Opposing linesmen hated to see Hill shot toward them, because he meant yardage for the Lions. His fine blocking helped much in off-tackle plays and end-runs.

ARTHUR JOHNSON

Center—Second Year

Arthur turned in another brilliant year at center. His success at blocking punts was instrumental in making many touchdowns for the Lions; as a passer, there was none more accurate. His ability to see plays and his hard tackling, coupled with his center tricks should take him far in college football.

PHILLIP KAY

Guard—First Year

"Hank," playing his initial year of football at guard, rated the regular line-up by fight and pep. Husky and good-natured, he enjoyed hitting the ball-carriers hard. Further experience will make him an outstanding linesman.

Mule hits the Gilmer line for yardage.

JOHN S. MORRIS

Halfback—Third Year

Johnnie's fine interference blocking will go down in history. Although little, he blocked with such determination that men of all sizes "bit the turf." Johnnie's ability to snag passes prevailed throughout the year. Once going, twisting, twirling, and sifting through a line, Morris was not easily caught.

EDWIN RASCOE

End—First Year

Edwin received his first letter this year by showing up well "under fire." His long and lanky build and his fight made him difficult to take out of the plays. Rascoe tackled hard and blocked well. He should do excellent work at end next year.

R. E. SMITH

Tackle—Second Year

As a first year regular, R. E. was confronted with the task of filling Dave Wilcox's place. This was no easy work, but he did it admirably. A defensive end always hated to see R. E. come at him, because he took his man out with a vengeance.

JOHN PORTER

Halfback—Second Year

John got off at a slow start this year, but he ended up like a whirlwind. His long gallops featured many games. Porter was a good passer and an exceptional pass-receiver. Speedy, and shifty, he sifted out of many would-be tacklers' hands.

HARRY SHUFORD

Quarterback—Second Year

Harry was converted into a punter, passer, and signal barker this year. His ability increased as the season progressed. Shuford was a power on both defense and offense. His tackling was fierce, and his blocking was steady. Shifty and heavy, his runs were always good for yardage.

TRAVIS STRIPLING

Halfback—First Year

In his first year to letter, Travis played a fine brand of football. His defensive work was outstanding; his steady blocking was a great help to the runners. Stripling hit the line hard and always emerged with several yards to his credit.

Beginning that touch-down drive.

GLEN THORNTON

Guard—First Year

"Fat" was one of the most consistent linemen in the line this year. He was hard to take out of the play, and he filled holes in a line that worried opposing teams. Thornton's long, high, spiral punts gained much yardage for the Lions.

LELAND WILCOX

Guard—Second Year

Lee was the first to be caught by the injury "jinx" this season. While he was in the game, he starred on defense, and was never completely taken out of a play. His manpower was greatly missed after his injury.

BILLIE STAMPS

Manager

Billie held his responsible position as business manager in a capable manner. He was always on the job, looking after the equipment and the playing field, and ready to assist in every way.

The Apache Chant

*We're Apache tribesmen,
Dauntless, brave and strong.
To defend our Totem Pole,
We would suffer long.
Gathered 'round our Council Fire,
We'll smoke our pipe of peace.
Real Atta Kula Kula's we—
Till life's pow-wow we cease.*

*We will be real red men,
Honoring our band.
We will make our tomahawks
Feared throughout the land.
To our sacred Hunting Ground,
We give this song of praise.
Her unstained black and gold—
Shall reign throughout our days.*

ADMINISTRATION

THE citizenship of Tyler is to be congratulated upon the organization of the Tyler Junior College. Students from the Tyler High School and surrounding communities have been benefited by this institution. Some of its graduates have gone into various vocations and professions, while others have made high scholastic records in senior colleges.

The Tyler Junior College is now a member of all accrediting associations. Recently membership was attained in the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States. No college in the South has attained a higher rating.

J. M. HODGES, President.

SPIRIT OF THE APACHE TRIBE!
May it prompt on the part of each one of us such conduct and attitudes only as are consistent with the ideals of that Tyler Junior College of our hopes and dreams.

Where Honor Is Due

DESPITE the excellent organization of student activities the Tyler Junior College provides for the recognition of many deserving leaders and workers, there are always a few who take pleasure in providing grist for the mill even though none of the wheat falls into their hands. They wield their tomahawks fiercely and loyally; yet they never wear the head-dress of a chief in Apacheland. Consequently, it has long been the custom to dedicate one page of each year-book to these inconspicuous warriors to whom honor is due. Not more than six students of the second year class are selected, students who have not received high recognition for their service to T. J. C.

This year we wish to honor R. H. Land, Virginia Buster, Billy Bedell, Sunshine Neely, Ruth Wilson, and Lucille Childers.

To R. H. Land we owe an example of true orientation to college life, for he is keenly sensitive to the fine points of saying the appropriate word, doing the appropriate thing, and showing the appropriate attitude. He has an appreciation of scholarship; he knows the meaning of culture; he is the personification of courtesy.

Virginia Buster has been an active factor in many extra-curricular activities. She was secretary of the student body, manager of tennis and a member of the A. K. K. in the Women's Athletic Association, member of the college Dramatic Club, and a leader in Phi Theta Kappa. When there was a program to be given, a talk to be made, a song to be sung, Virginia was ready to assist. No matter what part she was called on to do, she did it cheerfully and with originality.

Because Billy Bedell is absolutely dependable and a real student, he has been a constructive force in school movements. He weighed both sides of any question that concerned college and took a positive stand on his decision. His influence has been felt in Phi Theta Kappa; his judgment has been listened to in the Sachem Council.

Sunshine Neely has been the "right-hand man" for the leaders in many college activities. She could be depended on to see the work that needed to be done and to do it unobtrusively, caring little for any other reward than seeing the project completed. Since she was glad to lend her capability to any task, it was due to her efficiency that there was no flaw in the work behind the scene.

Ruth Wilson has been an active member of the W. A. A. and an enthusiastic leader in promoting the social life of the college. Her capable, efficient planning and direction of the college parties and teas assured their success. To give them variety, she has been a charming, gracious hostess in opening her home for the Apache festivities.

Lucille Childers' regular contributions to the Apache-Lion Pow-Wow, her representation in the Girl's Forum, and her interest in the social events of the college have assured her place among the chiefs of Apacheland. Her quiet management and assistance have been vital factors in the success of the college teas.

It is with joy and pride that we honor these students.

PHYCHEMBIO (Science Club)

Snake skins, lizard's eyes, wolf's heart! Boil! Bubble! Brew!

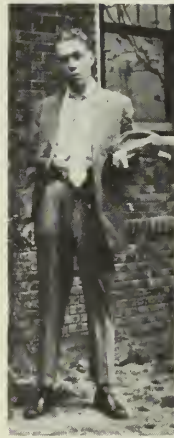

The medicine man is making heap big medicine for papooses. Each Apache must partake of the potion before receiving the privilege of entering the council of Phychembio.

Is a chieftain ill? The wise old squaws must know where to seek healing herbs. Or the braves must consult their friends, the birds and their brother, the fox.

Does the wind shake the tepee or the lightning flash blind the tribe? A beat of the tom-tom and the incantation of the medicine man calms the storm.

Phychembio Indians seek to learn the secrets of the elements in Physics, Chemistry and Biology.

Alma Olive: "I don't see how you tell those Duffy Twins apart."

Edward Leach: "That's easy; Maxine always blushes when she sees me."

❧

He: "When we come to the next bend in the road, I'm going to kiss you."

She: "Don't you think that's going a little too far."

❧

Elizabeth Cuthrell: "There's a lot of electricity in my hair."

Jack Flock: "No wonder. It's connected with a dry cell."

❧

Jack Crook: "Do you believe everything every fool tells you?"

La Nelle Dean: "No, Jack, but you do sound so plausible."

Miss Brandenburg: "No one ever heard a sentence without a predicate."

John Huddleston: "Yes'm, I have."

Miss B. (in surprise): "Well, what is it?"

John: "Thirty days."

❧

W. Barnett: "It's rotten to have to wait for a seat, ain't it?"

Fat Thornton: "You're lucky; I gotta wait for two."

❧

Judge (Mr. King): "Six months on the rock pile. Have you anything to say?"

J. E. Hodges: "That's crushing news, your honor."

❧

Mr. Henderson: "What did you find out about the salivary glands?"

Grace M. Skinner: "Ncthing at all. They're so darned secretive."

❧

O. Davis: "Hello, is this the City Bridge Department?"

"Yes, what do you want?"

O. D.: "How many points do you get for a little slam?"

JOKES

Lloyd Mc.: "I'm quite a near neighbor of yours now. I'm living just across the river."

James Menefee: "Indeed—I hope you'll drop in someday."

FAIRY TALE

Once upon a time there was a history teacher who told her class that the questions she gave on the final could all be found in the notebook, and she gave the final, and every one of the questions was taken from the notebook.

HOW MANY APPLES

How many apples did Adam and Eve eat? Some say Eve 8 and Adam 2, total 10.

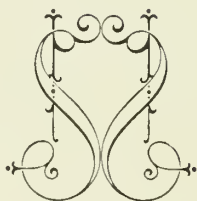

We figure differently. Eve 8 and Adam 8 also, total 16.

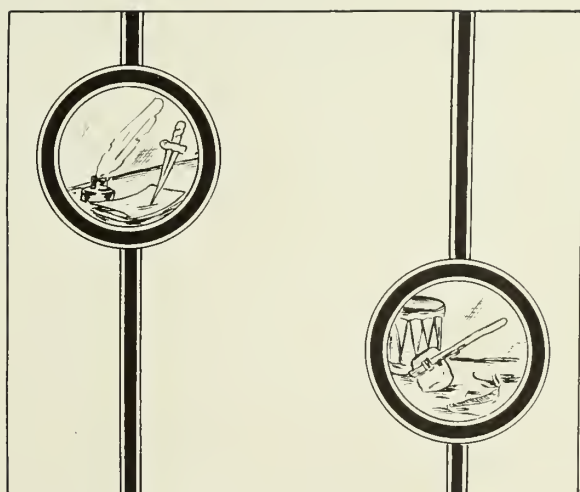

Figures lie however; if Eve 8 and Adam 82, total 90.

Scientists say Eve 81 and Adam 81, total 162.

Wrong again. What could be plainer than if Eve 81 and Adam 812 they would have eaten 893?

But at last we have the correct figures: Eve 814 Adam and Adam 8124 Eve, total 8938.

The Girls' Forum

A progressive step in the extra-curricula activity in the Tyler school system was the organization of the Girls' Forum, composed of the girls in the junior college and high school.

Desiring to help the girls by promoting opportunities for fellowship and for the development of individuality, the president of the Tyler Woman's Forum, Mrs. Ernest S. Goens, took as her Forum objective for 1932, "Girls." Under the leadership and guidance of Miss Adele Henderson, a faculty member, the girls became an organized unit known as the Girls' Forum.

The Executive Council, which is the governing body, is composed of the presidents of the various clubs in the junior college and high school and two representatives from each class in both institutions.

All girls' clubs in the junior college and high school are units of the Forum. The most active of these societies in the college are: Woman's Athletic Association, Choral Club, and Literary Workshop. In the high school the most active clubs are: Book Club, Pep Squad, Girls' Athletic Association, and The Girl Graduates.

Many interesting programs have been presented throughout the year, including an address by Dr. Ruby Terrell of the University of Texas, a lecture on "Culture," by Dr. Robert Hill, a musical program, a delightful spring style show, and a final program honoring the girl graduates of both the high school and college. Climaxing the activities of the year was the furnishing and decorating of attractive club rooms in Hubbard Building to be used for social affairs and business meetings.

The purpose of the Girls' Forum is to make every girl realize that she is a necessary unit in her club and that the success of her club depends upon her value as an active member. A club for every girl and every girl in a club is a motto that might be applied appropriately. The Girls' Forum desires to stimulate initiative and energy so that every girl may have a chance to develop those qualities of leadership and of foresight that designate the modern girl.

The Girl Graduate Club

On February 19, 1932, the "Girl Graduate Club" was organized for the purpose of promoting friendship among the high school graduates of 1931 and 1932 and those of years to come.

The club had many interesting and instructive programs during the year. Among the speakers were Mrs. W. S. Hanley, Mrs. Talbot Williams, Miss Mary Tancred and Mrs. Frank Williams. Other programs were given by members of the club.

On April 30, the Girl Graduates gave a program, The Doll Shop, in the auditorium. The money received for this show was contributed to a scholarship fund for Tyler Junior College.

As the main purpose of the club is to promote friendship, there were many socials and outings given. Several hikes and picnics were enjoyed on Saturdays and after school. One of the outstanding parties was a tea given the girls by Mrs. Wilcox, the town sponsor, on April 12, at her home. At this time, a very pretty musical program was presented by the club girls.

The "Girl Graduate Club" members of 1931-32 have the hope that the girls who fill their places in the high senior class in the coming years will continue to uphold the ideals of the club, and will carry on the spirit of friendliness for which the club is founded.

STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM

Students do not prefer the Encyclopedia Britannica to the Spice of Life for library reading.

It has been estimated that if all pop quizzes in Chemistry were stacked on top of each other, the person who had a match handy would be the hero of the hour.

Leland Wilcox's favorite indoor sport is not playing "chop sticks."

A few Juniors audaciously insist that the Seniors have not cornered the market on worldly wisdom.

It is rumored that Nell Simmons had a date with Delbert Jackson.

Marie Frances Lee was seen smiling at Ned Price.

John Porter was heard singing his theme song to Isabelle McFarland.

Mrs. Jones failed to assign more than fifty pages as one day's lesson in government.

Catherine Kaemmerlen had her bookkeeping lesson prepared one day.

Small people are usually good natured. P. S.: They have to be.

Edwin Rascoe is in good health, despite the fact that he is only six feet three in height.

Compliments to the opposite sex often help out a lot.

James Fleming got to school on time on April 1.

John Doggett was seen riding with a blonde.
We took pity on your weakness.

---

Jack: There's a certain reason why I love you.

Patizo: My goodness!

Jack: Don't be absurd.

* * *

Billy Sanders: Do you serve crabs here?

Waiter: Certainly, we serve anyone; sit down.

* * *

Rose: Is that a dray horse over there?

Engenia: No, it's a brown horse, and please stop your baby talk.

* * *

Mack Boring: When do you graduate?

Pete Pecot: End of this quarter.

Mack: Surprised?

Pete: No; I've been expecting it for years.

* * *

Morris Acker: Gosh, ain't that guy bow-legged?

Thomas George: Don't be vulgar. Now, Shakespeare would have been artistic about it.

Morris Acker: What'd Bill have did?

Thomas George: Like this: "Ah, forsooth, what manner of men are these, whose limbs prescribe parentheses?"

* * *

Vaudeville Manager: Why don't you go on with your animal act?

Trainer Jay Grisham: Pleathe, thir, I can't find my panther.

Manager: Never mind your clothes. Get on with the act.

* * *

Letcher Dean (on geometry test): Only one straight line can lie down between two points.

Jim Lavendar: Look here. You've kept me waiting here half an hour in front of this building looking like a fool.

Hazel Farr: I'm sorry I kept you waiting; but you are responsible for your looks.

FROM THE DIARY OF A LIONESS

MONDAY

Walked by the Pharmacy this morning. Saw the sweetest brown-haired, brown-eyed boy. He must be Clark Gable's double.

TUESDAY

Found my hero in third period study hall. He's got a sky-blue roadster. Would I like to ride?

WEDNESDAY

Dropped my book yesterday near him. He picked it up and smiled the nicest things! He has such adorable hair!

THURSDAY

My new boy is a whizz at football. Would I like to wear a blue sweater?

FRIDAY

Brown Eyes took me home to lunch; Whoopee! Am I getting on? I'll say! Tra la la la.

SATURDAY

Lost my mascara brush and my lipstick! Now my allowance will have to be used for necessities.

SUNDAY

Did that roadster and my new dress go together?

MONDAY

Such hard-heartedness! He laughed when I got "tear-y" and mascara got on my new dress.

TUESDAY

Saw the grandest blue-eyed fellow today. Boy! How sweet! He's in fifth period study hall. Just you wait!
